

flow, and know that having walked through these curious mind-gates, your future is a bright one. Know that time will continue to flow, however capriciously, but we each have a choice along the way to pause, embracing the ebbs and flows of life.

My dearest Pomona College Class of 2013, I want to thank each of you for making this the best four years of my life thus far. I want to thank you for allowing me to serve as your class president. It has truly been an honor.

Push the 'pause' button off. Let's burst this bubble, feeling refreshed and glad to have been here. Now, with the time that each of us has been granted, let's go out into the world and share the passionate power of Pomona's Class of 2013. Thank you.
